Saturday Event: Dr. King and the Ongoing March Toward Justice

Please join us for a collaborative event for the 2025 Martin Luther King Jr., Holiday hosted by the presbytery and multiple PTCA area congregations, including Valley Presbyterian, Liberty Church, House of Hope, Bryn Mawr, Oak Grove Presbyterian, and Westminster.

When: Saturday, January 18th, 9:30 light refreshments, program 10-12pm
Where: Westminster Presbyterian Church, 1200 Marquette Ave, Minneapolis
Cost: FREE

We'll have rich conversation about the continuing significance of Dr. King's words, "Human progress never rolls in on wheels of inevitability; it comes through the tireless efforts of [people] willing to be co-workers with God."

In the spirit of Dr. King's invitation, we'll explore the theme of Call and Response: Dr. King and the Ongoing March toward Justice, as participants are inspired by local justice leaders. Facilitated breakout groups and spiritual practice will also help us consider our individual and collective commitments to bring about the work of racial justice and communal liberation in 2025 and beyond.
